

TRAVEL DIARIES + : SIR RICHARD COLT HOARE : AQ 11

- 726 A Historical Tour through Pembrokeshire by Richard Newton copied by RCH
- 750 25 March 1878 : Sir Richard Colt Hoare's Deed of Covenant to the Wiltshire Archaeological Society
- 856 typed notes for a lecture on Richard Colt Hoare as artist and patron
- 870 'Travelling Journal July 1795' notes on a journey through Warwickshire, Gloucestershire &c : notes in pencil at one end and written up accounts in ink at the other. Gives distances between places, state of the roads and inns as well as descriptions of places
- 871 Journey from Florence to England and Italy 1791 by the Tyrol ; table of places, posts, time taken name and state of inns, followed by a diary with description of places visited, 96 pages
- 872 (3 February 1808) Deed in six parts between Sir Richard Colt Hoare, Henry Hoare and others relating to raising rents from parts of the Stourhead estate (including Stourton Caundle, West Knoyle) to raise £1000 per annum for the use of Charlotte Dering the intended wife of Henry Hoare
- 875 'Extracts from Various Authors 1786' - excerpts in English and French copied out by RCH
- 878 Institutiones Heytesbury, & Branch & Dole 1498-1817 ; copied notes by RCH on Longford Castle during the Civil War, land transfers in the Heytesbury area, list of preferments and patrons of Heytesbury Church, the Corsham papers and Lady Margaret Hungerford
- 879 4 poems Verses to R Sheridan Ad amicum Sheridanum and Loquitor John Bull copied out by RCH ; To H A Hoare Esq. on his return to Ayensham 14 October 1858; a long rant against the intrigues of the critics and the press the letter on the back (anonymous) says to RCH 'to make any use of it you think proper' and hopes he will show it to Lords Pembroke and Radnor
- 880 printed notes on the cultivation of geraniums and pelargoniums by RCH
- 886 Exemplification of a Charter of Dissaforestation of the poorest lands of Penzellwood by King Charles I to Andrew Evans Esq. 7 July: 15 Charles I (1640) an extended copy form an original deed in the Evidence Chamber of Sir R C Hoare at Stourhead Co. Wilts
- 983 Proceedings of the Court of Enquiry on the Conduct of Capt. James Charles Edgell of the 4th, or the King's Own Regiment on the Charges exhibited against him by the Rev. William Ireland, Vicar of Frome and one of His Majesty's Justice of the Peace for the County of Somerset ; printed by Richard Crudwell, St James's Street Bath 1807
- 1018 photocopies of RCH's 'Daily Journal' which is his travel diary 1796-1833 lists dates and where he went. Kenneth Woodbridge has analysed these which show a roughly regular pattern of movement between Stourhead, London, Hagley, travel over the course of each year 1797-1811 and 1812-1828 with increasingly long periods at Stourhead and more frequent visits to Bath as his gout worsens
- 1302 photocopy of an article on Welsh antiquarian works which references engravings by Basire taken from drawings by RCH

- 1304 typed Bibliography of books by and relevant to Sir Richard Colt Hoare
- 1307 Kenneth Woodbridge's notes and analysis on Richard Colt Hoare's Grand Tour Journals 1785-1791; notes on Roman Roads for Collections for Wiltshire and Kenneth Woodbridge's notes on RCH's notes on the Romans
- 1310 Sir Richard Colt Hoare's Will proved 6 July 1838 - an old photocopy (?1960s) white on black background (RCH died 19 May 1838)
- 2662 (17 June 1986) 'Sir Richard Colt Hoare - Artist and Patron' correspondence between Harold Cory, Wiltshire representative of the National Art-Collections Fund and Paul Robinson re. Kenneth Woodbridge's lecture
- 3467 printed transcription of RCH's tours to Somerset in 1807, two in 1808 one in March & one in May & June
- 3769 poster for an exhibition at the Frome Museum on The Dorset & Somerset Canal. The face on the poster is of Abraham Crocker (1748-1821) - a photograph of a portrait in Frome Town Council Offices. Abraham was father of Philip Crocker. He was a surveyor, cartographer, printer and Master of the Blue School, Frome. He wrote The Elements of Land Surveying designed principally for the use of schools and students